

PUSH MUGS

FURNITURE / LIGHTING / ACCESSORIES

PRODUCT FACT SHEET

METTE DUEDAHL ON THE DESIGN: "The PUSH mug is a useful everyday mug that might become your new favorite for enjoying coffee, tea or any other drink. The aim was to create a contemporary mug that would serve well as a relative to the PUSH coffee maker, with the same visual and tactile appeal. The mug has a simple, aesthetic form, a soft appearance and the silky smooth feel of the raw, unglazed stoneware has a pleasant touch."

PROCESS

100 % hand made. Clay mass is poured into a mold, dried, hand processed and finally burned. The jug is glazed on the inside, while the raw stone is kept on the outside.

DESIGNED BY / YEAR OF DESIGN

Mette Duedahl / 2015

TYPE

Mugs.

DESCRIPTION

An elegant and soft handmade mug in unglazed stoneware, perfect for everyday use. Stoneware is a natural material and is heat conductive, please take caution when handling hot beverages. Sold in sets of two mugs.

ENVIRONMENT

Indoor

DIMENSIONS (CM)

Height: 7,8 cm
Ø: 7,6 cm

VOLUME

275 ML

MATERIAL

Stoneware

CLEANING INSTRUCTIONS

Diswasher proof

ABOUT THE DESIGNER

Mette Duedahl is a Danish designer, who graduated in 2011 from the Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts, Center for Glass and Ceramics, Bornholm. She exhibited as an 'Upcoming designer' in the curated New Note area at Formland in August 2011, and was part of the Crafts Collection 17 exhibited at Maison et Objet, Paris 2013. Mette is inspired by everyday life and needs, and aims to design innovative and honest objects where high use-value is combined with a simple aesthetic design.

Stoneware